

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PRESENTED BY
MRS. LÆTITIA HOLLIER TO GRESHAM COLLEGE.

AT a Joint or Grand Committee for Gresham Affairs, held at Mercers' Hall, London, on Friday the 22nd day of September, 1871,

The following Letter, addressed to H. E. Barnes, Esq.,
by John Evans, Esq., Solicitor, was read :—

59, Lincoln's Inn Fields, W.C.

14 September, 1871.

Dear Sir,

I am directed to inform you that Mrs. Lætitia Hollier, of Park Terrace, Greenwich, who died on the 5th ulto., has bequeathed to "The Trustees of Gresham College, in the City of London, as founded by Sir Thomas Gresham, and for the general purposes of the said College, all her Pictures, and all her Printed Books, Maps, and Prints (including the Portrait of herself, painted by James Linnel, and the Portrait of her late husband), and also all the Bookcases in which such Books are placed."

The Pictures are about 40 in number, of various qualities; some of them are valuable, but many are inferior.

The Books consist of about 1,200 vols., and I have reason to believe that many of them are valuable, and all of them good.

I am desired by the Executors of the Will to say that they are desirous of delivering these Pictures and Books to the Trustees of the College as speedily as they can conveniently receive them.

And the Executors will have great pleasure in giving every possible facility to the Trustees in the meantime for inspecting and arranging for the removal of the Pictures and Books, for the purpose of making arrangements for which I will gladly attend the Committee at any time they may appoint.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

JOHN EVANS.

H. E. Barnes, Esq.,
Mercers' Hall,
Ironmonger Lane, E.C.

Mr. Evans, being in attendance, was called in, and gave a short description of the Pictures and Books referred to in his letter.

Resolved,—That the bequest be accepted, and that the Clerk do address a suitable Letter of Thanks to the Executors of the late Lætitia Hollier.

Resolved,—That it be referred to the Joint Sub-Committee to make arrangements for the removal of the Books and Pictures to Gresham College, and report thereon to this Committee.

At a Joint or Grand Committee for Gresham Affairs, held at Mercers' Hall, London, on Friday, the 8th of December, 1871,

Resolved,—That the Librarian of the Corporation of London be instructed to make a Catalogue of the Books, and to furnish the Joint or Grand Committee for Gresham Affairs with a list and description of the Pictures, &c.

PRAYER. A Booke of Christian Prayers, collected out of the antient Writers and best learned in our time, worthy to be read with an earnest mind, of all Christians in these dangerous and troublesome daies. At London: Printed by Richard Yardley and Peter Short, dwelling on Bred Street Hill, at the signe of the Starre, for the Assignees of Richard Day. 8vo. 1590.

A perfect copy of a rare and most interesting book.

This manual of private devotions is commonly known as QUEEN ELIZABETH'S PRAYER BOOK. The text is ascribed to John Foxe, the Martyrologist, who is said to have originally compiled it for the personal use of Her Majesty, as in the only copy known of the first edition all the prayers for the Queen are in the first person. That copy, dated 1569, descended from Queen Elizabeth to Queen Anne, and is now in the Archbishop's library, Lambeth. In 1578 an edition for general use was printed, and was reprinted in 1581 and 1590. On the back of the title-page is a full-length portrait of the Queen at her prayers, and every page of the work is surrounded with designs, after Albert Durer, illustrative of the Life of Christ, the Cardinal Virtues and their Opposite Vices, the Works of Charity, the Five Senses, and the Day of Judgment. At the end is the Dance of Death in a long series of designs attributed to Hans Holbein.
